

The 32nd Annual Conference of The Eckhart Society

September 13th -15th 2019 Hinsley Hall, Leeds.

Eckhart and the Radical Reformation

This conference will explore the strong attraction of Meister Eckhart's and his disciple Tauler's mystical thought to the 'unruly offspring of Luther' among the Radical Reformers of the 16th century, often known as 'the left wing of the German Reformation.' The programme for the weekend includes meditation, lectio, silence and music.

Open to all; members of the Society and non-members are equally welcome.

With papers from:

Dr Sarah Apetrei

Dr Michael Baylor

Dr Ulrich Bubenheimer

Dr Marvin Anderson

Bookings via the website or by post to:
The Administrator, The Eckhart Society,
4, Turpins Green, Maidenhead,
SL6 4QE, England.

Email: hilary.monaghan@turpinsacs.co.uk

Resident fee £275 non-resident fee £155

www.eckhartociety.org